The Calvary Road and Be Filled Now

Taking the Enlightenment and the feminist tradition to which it gave rise as its historical and philosophical coordinates, Feminism and the Politics of Travel After the Enlightenment explores the coincidence of feminist vindications and travel in the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, the way travel's utopian dimension and feminism's utopian ideals have intermittently fed off each other in productive ways. Travel's gender politics is analyzed in the works of J.-J. Rousseau, Mary Wollstonecraft, Stéphanie-Félicité de Genlis, Germaine de Staël, Frances Burney, Flora Tristan, Suzanne Voilquin, Gustave Flaubert George Sand, Robyn Davidson, and Sara Wheeler.

Bengal Partition Stories

The Calvary Road is the British evangelist, Roy Hession's best known book. It is a simple practical exposition of the essential role and the fruit of humility and repentance in the Christian life. It has changed lives and ministries. The chapters are: Brokenness; Cups Running Over; The Way of Fellowship; The Highway of Holiness; The Dove and the Lamb; Revival in the Home; The Mote and the Beam; Are You Willing to be a Servant?; The Power of the Blood of the Lamb; and Protesting Our Innocence? Christians of all persuasions appreciate the importance of being filled with the Holy Spirit. The Hessions write "the apostolic injunction, 'Be filled with the Spirit' (Eph. 5. 18) still stands binding on every believer, and he ignores it at the peril of missing the fruitfulness and joy which such fullness brings." This

Demand for tractors after the War was insatiable, and the period covered saw extraordinary growth in production and innovation in design. The text is illustrated exclusively with images - some 400 in all - from the manufacturers' sales
